"Your Travel Authority to Portugal"

Nestled in the heart of historical Oporto and set on the city's Ferdinand wall, the Guest House Douro offers a unique, warm and personal experience. First and only luxury guesthouse on the waterfront Ribeira, the city's most fascinating and romantic neighbourhood.

Part of UNESCO's World Heritage Site since 1996, and classified National Monument, the Guest House Douro enjoys breathtaking vistas. All rooms offer direct views, either of the magnificent Douro river, the emblematic Dom Luis bridge and the numerous Port lodges that line the riverbank in Gaia or of the romantic Fonte Taurina, one of the oldest streets of Oporto first referenced in 1296.

When staying at the Guest House Douro, you are only steps away from an abundance of attractions and historical monuments, boat tours, funicular, and so much more!

Relax and let the Douro River offer its unique and serene light by languishing on the river terraces along the promenade.

Create beautiful memories and let the Guest House Douro be one of them!
